

U.S. EMBASSY HANOI

MOCK ELECTION 2016

Are you interested in American politics and how Americans' run political campaigns? Do you want to learn about America's political system? The U.S. Embassy's American Center will be hosting a Mock Election, where high school and university age participants, a part of a team, learn how to organize their own political campaigns based on the American two-party system. For more info please attend the info session at the American Center on June 29 at 4:30 PM. Apply online with three team members including a team leader: <https://goo.gl/ggKnvl>
